About Roam the Room Activities

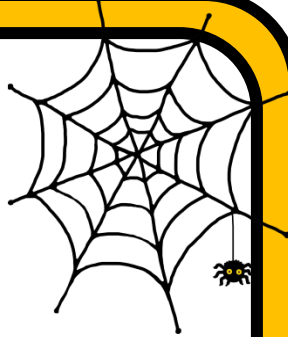

"Roam the Room" activities were designed to get students up and moving to practice/review concepts. This activity includes 20 questions, making it easy for the teacher to use for a grade, if desired. If not, it can serve as a great formative assessment to plan future instruction. Roam the Rooms are independent activities, so they're also perfect to use when the teacher needs time for individual benchmarking or small group instruction. Another possibility is to leave one set up for a couple of days for early finishers to work on. The possibilities are endless!

Directions

Post the cards around the classroom. Students will roam the room with the recording sheet. Students should solve the problems on the card and record their answers on the recording page.
